Drafting note: Primarily technical changes to modernize language. Proposed subsection C, providing for the escheat of real estate if no other heirs exist, is new language and is designed to mirror existing § 64.1-12 which deals with personal property accruing to the Commonwealth if no other heirs exist.

§ 64.1-11 64.2-201. Distribution of personal estate; right of Commonwealth if no other distributee.

B. If there is no other distributee of a decedent's personal estate, such personal estate shall accrue to the Commonwealth.

Drafting note: Relocated from existing § 64.1-11 with technical changes to modernize language. Existing § 64.1-12 is relocated to proposed subsection B with technical changes.

§ 64.1-2. How collaterals of half blood inherit.

~~Collaterals of the half blood shall inherit only half so much as those of the whole blood.~~

A. A decedent's estate, or each half portion of such estate when division is required by subdivision A 5 of § 64.2-200, shall, except when otherwise~~ provided in subdivision A 1 of § 64.2-200, be divided into as many equal shares as there are (i) heirs and distributees who are in the closest degree of kinship to the decedent and (ii) deceased persons, if any, in the same degree of kinship to the decedent who, if living, would have been heirs and distributees and who left descendants surviving at the time of the decedent's death. § 64.1-4 64.2-203. When alienage of ancestor not to bar inheritance rights of certain individuals.

In making title by descent, it shall be no bar to a party that any ancestor, whether living or dead, through whom he derives his descent from the intestate, A. Except as otherwise provided by law, no person is barred from inheriting because such person or a person through whom he claims his inheritance is or has been an alien.

B. A person who is related to the decedent through two lines of relationship is entitled to only a single share based on the relationship that would entitle him to the larger share.

Drafting note: The language of existing § 64.1-4, which is now proposed subsection A, has been expanded to provide that aliens can inherit through intestate succession. Existing § 64.1-4 only provides that the fact that the ancestor of a person who takes through intestate succession is or was an alien does not preclude inheritance, but is silent as to the alienage of the person himself. This is not, however, an expansion of Virginia law as aliens may acquire property by descent pursuant to § 55-1. Subsection B consists of the language relocated from existing § 64.1-6.1. There are also technical changes to modernize language.
